Though our staff has over 35 years of experience, Tráficos de Levante is a young company dedicated exclusively to land and sea transport.

We provide the highest quality technical and human resources in order to guarantee professional and efficient service. Our staff is prepared to attend to you by phone, email or through our website, supplying you with the necessary followup to properly monitor your collections and deliveries. We operate out of Alicante and Valencia where we are able to easily bring together various containers and goods in order to send them on to The Canary Islands or any other domestic or international destination. We offer weekly service and handle everything necessary for your shipments: customs, insurance, reimbursements, commercial assessment, etc. We have quality certification through the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).
